Dedication

The world is in turmoil. Unrest persists through decade after decade. The strife subsides sometimes, sometimes reaches frightening proportions, engulfing every nation without exception and threatening each with imminent extinction. Such is the condition of our world today.

In every generation men are confronted with its peculiar problem. Men of this generation-the rank and file as well as those in places of prestige and offices of authority-witness with trepidation an unprecedented upheaval among the nations.

Men of prestige and men of authority view this condition with instinctive fear, flagging hope, and ever rising bewilderment. Their disheartening sense of things is natural, for the problem beggars a solution fashioned of human hands.

Yet the right solution-the one man is helpless to devise-the one man's Maker alone can give, has long ago been given man by His Maker:

"Thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build My Church."

Human peace and concord can stem only from a principle of unity. Man knows this but has failed to create the principle. God knows it and has in His wisdom and mercy favored man with this needed principle.

"Thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build My Church."

Why does mankind continue to flounder on the stormy seas of strife? Why does it grope with harrassed heart for harmony between the nations?

Because "though they have ears to hear, they do not hear."

This divinely instituted principle of unity is the raison d'etre of Campion College. It is the daily effort of Campion to inculcate this certain principle of human harmony in the hearts and minds of youthful Canadians, who in time will sow the seed in other hearts and minds chiefly by the harmony evident in their own persons, by word when occasion warrants.

Campion cannot attain a higher achievement-one ever assured by its filial and faithful devotion to His Holiness, Pope John XXIII, the Vicar of Christ, the divine guarantee of unerring guidance to the haven of human harmony.

At Campion all direction leads to Christ Our Lord- "omnia et in omnibus Christus" - here we see Campion students finding Christ where His infinite love makes Him near in this vale of tears.

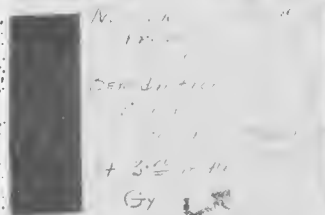

In the picture below Father Lepine has just completed celebration of Holy Mass at First Friday devotions. Acolytes are Hugh Clair and Allen Hustak.

On opposite page at the bottom Allen Hustak instructs acolyte candidates, William Howells and Allan Isabelle.

Early in the school year the entire student body pay tribute to the Canadian Martyrs, Jesuit missionaries to Canada more than three centuries ago, canonized by Pope Pius XI in 1930.

Father Dyer, Campion's academic dean, and Father Boyle, dean of discipline, with seeming grim intent watch the practice of the football team or is it simply a chilly fall day!

Football in the intramural league this year matched the high tradition of Campion and action such as this page shows was a joy to watch. In picture at bottom of page- the Intramural Champions!

There's no game like football to get student school spirit stirring and into high gear. Champion's football teams have always been teams of prowess—teams eager to be on the offensive as one easily sees as Rudy Lipp in tip-toe position at the quarterback spot leads his team-mates to the attack.

"Whether you eat or drink or whatsoever else you do, do all to the glory of God."

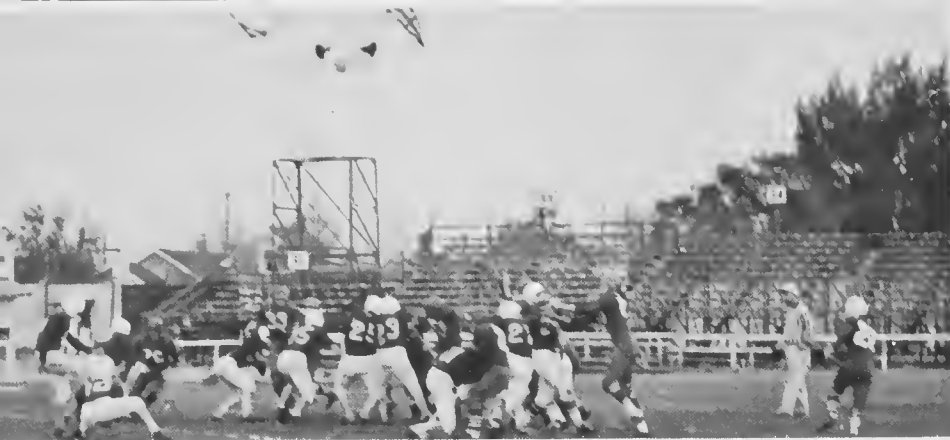

Campion athletes like to win and play to win. The record shows that victory has come to Campion more often than not. As long as Campion's athletes are motivated with the above sentiment, the record will show Campion is always victorious.

Halfback Art McAvoy's nifty shift and burst of speed see him touchdown bound as Coach Jim Mc-Faul and defensive stalwarts and host of Campion rooters look on with varied attention.

OUR LADY'S SODALITY is one of Campion's most alert organizations. Mike Ryan and George Fortier were this year's Prefect and vice-Prefect respectively. Gary Dionne headed the Mission Committee, Stu Nicholson the Booster, Larry Nestman the Career Committee, the Liturgical guided by Frank Obregewitsch. The picture at the right shows Father Sitter, Director, addressing a general session. In the lower right, Fr. Kevin J. Scott, S.J., Director of Darjeeling Mission Service, receives a check from the Sodality at the hands of George Fortier and Mike Ryan.

The picture below points up the widespread practice of the Apostleship of Prayer among the students.

In the other picture Fr. John Toth performs the age old practice of the Church as he administers ashes to the kneeling students.

As soon as the below zero season sets in, Campion's outdoor enthusiasts - and they are many - take to the college's fine hockey rink. The action here is a sample of what is almost a daily program, all Education's ultimate criterion is self-expression. Drama moderator, Mr. K. Mac-ray, we see at the right explaining the theatrics of the play to his high school thespians, who we subsequently see attempting to act out his directives.

The Senate Club is another school society affording opportunity for self-expression, specializing in public speaking and debating.

Mr. L. Henbury, the club's moderator, starts off a weekly session.

Club member, Orrin Ritter, has one of many chances to orate to a highly critical audience.

Above pitcher Gerry Hildebrand moving into a pitch. Then the Champion nine at bat and on the base paths to get the runs their pitcher needs to win.

Champion baseballers netted five to three record, good enough to insure a play-off spot.

Below, Larry Nestman and Alvan Jelinski Intramural Bowling Champions with the winner's trophy.

Stuart Nicholson, on left, and Wayne Cybulski, below, brought high honors to Campion - Stu by getting the best marks in a mathematics competition for Grade Twelve students of the Province sponsored by the University of Saskatchewan; Wayne was the victor over all opponents in the Bryant Oratorical Tournament.

INTRAMURAL BASEBALL engages many of

Fred Day arbiters in the top picture - then that hitter looks like he's sure of first base - third baseman Charles Seaman directs the defensive as Coach Mr. Ken Passler chases home his runner. Father John Toth, a loyal intramural fan, conspicuous spectator!

CANDIDATES FOR THE PRESIDENCY OF THE STUDENT COUNCIL: Terry Rigelhof, Ron Kinley, Fran Justik, Jack Szafron, Luigi Dagnone.

The democratic processes spell the tenor of Campion's spring exercise of the franchise - and democratic hoopla, snake-dancing et al. generate the enthusiasm essential to the considered judgment preparatory to the marking of the ballot.

Candidate Terry Rigelhof on the shoulders of supporters during a session of campaigning hoopla.

THE WINNAH - Ron Kinley after forty eight hours of poster-making, strategy planning, smoke-filled room politicing, countless speeches, and convention addresses.

Holy Week timetable at Campion calls for the Senior Students Closed Retreat. For many successive years now this retreat has been under the expert direction of Rev. Hector W. Daly, S.J. a faculty member of St. Paul's College, Winnipeg.

Next we get a glimpse at some of these same students attacking an exam - some look the part - others, well, Mike Allard and Ron Thomas are hardly camera shy; indeed, they rate a 100% - as for the exam????????

GRADUATION PROM
- Fr. Charles Sitter with the help of many generous resident student hands - the guys with wind - readied the prom ballroom with artistic eclat. In such gorgeously appointed atmosphere light fantastic joyousness was all pervading.

In above picture Father Boyle prom moderator, looks on the scene of youthful gaiety - remembering when!

Faculty member, Mr. Galen Wahlmeier, casts a chaperon's eye in the direction of gay lad, Fred Helfrich.

The Ladies Auxiliary were hosts to the graduates at the Annual Banquet. Special features - Fr. Dyer's reminiscings - Fr. Boyle's roast - Mike Ryan's acceptance of the latter - all were consumed with the same relish as the main course. Good, man!

Father Rector, the Very Reverend Angus J. MacDougall, S.J., makes his annual report. The audience apparently finds it not only informative but amusing as well.

The Graduates process onto the stage while a crowded auditorium stand at attention - and many of the parents present, we can be sure, with glowing hearts!

Salutatorian Wayne Cybulski receives honor award from Father Rector, who then presents Stuart Nicholson with one of several awards the latter received in the course of the evening.

The murkiness of the above picture may well belie the certain light aglow in the hearts of these first day Arts and Science students as they assist at the Mass of the Holy Spirit. Below - don't be shy girls - what a day! to register as a student of Campion! The boys? Why, they're gentlemen, of course!

As is readily seen from the above picture, the college students' library radiates the cheeriness that conduces to effective study and sure scholarship. Look at the students on the right - they have a spare - but are they wasting time!

A power shortage seems to have attended at least one social event of the Arts social life. When it comes to dancing, pass marks are had by all. Or could this be wrong? That skeleton is not for medical lab use - it's a Halloween prop, believe it or not.

Arts students have time for thespian cavortings. Some of the thespians one notices are muscular, indeed, but then so many are rather dainty. One flaw in their thespian try occurs to us - a noticeable lack of articulateness. Touche!

Arts Sodality Reception Day

Rev. Father Rector receives the consecration of the candidate sodalists. Mr. Norman J. Dodge, S.J. sodality moderator, and James Kuster, sodality prefect, assist in the ceremony. Below are the new sodalists - Patricia Zimmerman, Eldora Campbell, and Charlotte Morton.

Campion College's Chancellor, His Grace, Archbishop O'Neill, addresses the graduates and those attending the exercises.

Arts student Patricia Burke receives from His Grace the college award to student who came second in class.

Rev. Patrick J. Boyle, S.J., assistant dean, and Rev. James W. Dyer, S.J., dean, lead Graduates Procession.

Fr. Rector presents to Charlotte Morton the Junior College Scholarship given by the University of Saskatchewan to the leading student in a Junior College.

Autographs

Campion's 1961 Graduation Exercises were honored with the presence of several dignitaries and leading citizens.

On the opposite page are shown some of these: Mr. Joseph McIntyre, prominent local lawyer, addressing the graduates; the Premier of Saskatchewan, the Honorable T. C. Douglas, in conversation with Archbishop O'Neill and the Honorable Chief Justice Emmert M. Hall; in another picture we see His Grace, Archbishop O'Neill with Chief Justice Hall.

Other pictures show Mr. E. Hallam, Mrs. O. J. McNeill, President of the Campion Ladies Auxiliary, Mr. Norman J. Dodge, S. J., and Mr. H. McNamee; at the tea table Mrs. A. Doiron and Mrs. J. J. Boyle; finally, alumna Miss Patricia Wicijowski and Fr. Thomas P. J. Doyle, S.J.

Brother Daniel J. Brady, S.J.

Brother Daniel J. Brady, S.J., and Brother Maurice H. Kline, S.J., are responsible for the Maintenance and Management Departments of Campion College.

Brother Brady, we see, laying out a job - next, inspecting a recently built planter at the northeast corner of the Boyle Memorial Gymnasium; then we see both Brother Brady and Brother Kline with a workman installing the young plants.

On the next page Brother Kline setting out and in the course of one of his frequent shopping tours.

The pictures at the bottom show both Brothers during leisure time - even then, one readily notices, they are about the college's business.
